

Know the Rules of the Road: Creating Internet Safety Lanes

Purpose: Identify and create boundaries for using the internet at school.

When you're at school, do you use devices to go online? If so, an internet agreement can help keep you from going off course in your online adventures. First, read the questions below and then write your responses. Next, talk through these questions with your teacher and class to create your internet agreement.

1 What kinds of online activities should the internet be used for when I'm at school?

2 What information should I make sure not to share online when I'm at school?

3 What are some helpful websites I can visit when online at school?

4 How can I be supportive of my classmates online?

5 What should I do if I see something online that makes me upset?

6 Does our school have other rules about using the internet? (If you don't know, ask your teacher!)
