

Cyber Safe Seek-and-Find

Purpose: Understand words that will help you be an alert online explorer.

There are nine hidden words in the grid below. Look up, down, across, backward and diagonally to find the words that remind you how to be alert online!

Search for these words that will remind you to avoid falling for a fake:

CLICKBAIT: Content that attracts attention and could push you to click on a link to a certain site by using interesting formatting or catchy phrases.

CREDIBLE: Believable; providing reasons for you to be confident they are telling the truth, such as using evidence.

DECEPTIVE: False; an action or message designed to fool, trick or lie to someone.

KEYWORD: A word directly related to the topic of your internet search—one of the words you really need to do your search because no other word describes your topic better.

MOTIVE: The reason that someone does something; intention.

PHISHING: An attempt to trick you into sharing your login or other personal information online.

SCAM: A dishonest attempt to make money by tricking people into sharing their login, personal info, contacts, and so on, or tricking people out of their money or digital property.

SOURCE: Someone or something that provides information.

QUERY: A keyword, set of keywords or a question you type into a search window (or box) to find information online.

Quiz your family! Do they know what these Be Internet Alert words mean?

Answers:

Cyber Safe Seek-and-Find

